

There are ONLY two FM Contemporary Christian Music format stations in the Tri-Valley area (both are translators), and the rest of the FM band is jammed with secular channels looking alike, such that I fear losing these translator services to a LPFM station that will not be replaced by a like-minded station, leaving no contemporary faith-based format, especially in our Tri-Valley.